

MY PEACE I GIVE

1. My peace I give, my peace I leave you;
though I am gone you will know my peace.
When the raging war thunders round you,
you'll be safe with me in my care.

This is my gift to you –
this is my gift to you.

2. My peace I give, unexpected treasure:
it can't be bought, it can't be earned.
Open hands are all that is needed,
open hands that wait to receive.

3. My peace I give to the lost and broken –
I bring you home, I heal your wounds.
Every scrap of broken creation,
stretching out my arms, I embrace.

4. My peace I give, as the angels promised.
You'll know my heart, you'll know my mind.
As you share my death and my rising,
share my peace wherever you go.

© 1986 Robin Mann