

STEP INTO THE BOAT

Step into the boat and sail,
hold each other's hand;
you can go anywhere together:
sailing on his ocean, underneath his sky,
guided by his shining stars through the night,
through the night — he will be your light!

Step into the wind and fly, hold each other's hand;
you can go anywhere together:
gliding on his breezes, riding on the wind
— all the songs he teaches you, you can sing, you can sing — he will be your wings!

Step into the road and run,
hold each other's hand;
you can go anywhere together:
running down his valleys, resting in his shade,
guided by his shining sun everyday,
everyday — he will be your way!
